M.P.H.	University of Washington (Seattle), Social & Behavioral Sciences, 1997
B.S.	Loyola University (Chicago), Applied Psychology, summa cum laude, 1991

Administrative Appointments, Michigan State University:

2013— Chair & Professor, Department of Human Development and Family Studies, College of Social Science

- Lead the department's community of faculty, staff and students in the implementation of excellence in research, teaching, and outreach, with an emphasis on fostering a research culture.

- Resource building through supporting grant seeking, entrepreneurial and fundraising activities.

    - Grant growth 2013-present: $2.6M (from $401K to $3M)
    - Fundraising growth 2013-present: $3.49M (from $350K to $3.84M)

- Oversee the unit's two community-based Child Development Laboratory Schools and the Couple and Family Therapy Clinic.

- Administer interdisciplinary degree programming for roughly 520 students (85% undergraduate), including on-campus doctoral and master's programs, plus two online masters programs.

- Foster collaboration within the department, and between the department and college, university, and external systems, including funding agencies, private foundations, and community organizations. Provide support for cross-unit collaborations with the College of Business, College of Education, College of Engineering, and College of Human Medicine.

Administrative, Michigan State University (continued):

2018—2019 Special Advisor on Non-Tenured Academic Professionals, Academic Advancement Network, Office of the Provost

- I am leading an investigation of the supports, challenges and needs of non-tenured academic professionals, including differences by appointment type and by gender. In fall 2018, I led a two-phase mixed-methods investigation. In phase one, seven (7) focus groups were conducted with 67 non-tenured academic professionals (stratified by appointment type: specialists/librarians, fixed term, and tenure stream) to identify initial themes. In phase two, using six (6) overarching themes/areas identified in the focus groups, an online survey was developed and completed by 530 non-tenured academic professionals at MSU (62.76% female; 24.85% non-White) (of 1321 invited, for a response rate of 40.1%). A report summarizing findings is guiding the redesign of supports for academic professionals.

2016— Special Advisor, Academic Advancement Network, Office of the Provost

- Lead conversations with academic administrators regarding unit culture change through consensus building.
- Lead conversations with academic administrators regarding strategies for engaging about retirement issues with faculty and academic staff.
- Provide consultation to chairs, directors and deans regarding faculty evaluation.
- Lead conversations with mid-career faculty considering academic leadership.
- Serve on the selection committee for the Academic Leadership Program of the Big Ten Academic Alliance.
- Lead conversations about faculty expectations at New Administrator Orientation training.

2015—2018 Chair, Sexual Violence Advisory Committee, Office of the President

- Led committee in soliciting input from the campus community and other key stakeholders concerning strategies for improving response to relationship violence and sexual misconduct.
- Led committee in providing recommendations to the Title IX coordinator and President on matters pertaining to the university's compliance with Title IX, including guidance/recommendations on university communication.
- In collaboration with campus partners, designed and implemented student leadership institute to engage men in preventing campus sexual assault.
