Education

Ph.D., University of Chicago, Department of Geography (1982). Awarded National Science Foundation Graduate Fellowship (1977-1981).

M.A., University of Chicago, Department of Geography (1978).

B.A. with Honors, University of Wisconsin-Madison, Department of Geography (1976). Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Kappa Phi.

Highlights of Leadership and Administrative Experience

1) University of Connecticut, 2013-present.

a) Head, Department of Geography.

2) Association of American Geographers, Washington, DC

a) President (2010-2011), Vice-President (2009-2010), Past President (2011-2012)

Responsibilities included coordinating with the executive director on the oversight of a $5.25 million annual budget; a $6.8 million endowment; a 24-person staff; and a membership of 11,000 professional and academic geographers. The association publishes two of the major international journals in geography and convenes the largest annual geography meeting in the world (8,700 attendees in spring 2012). The president is also the liaison for the 9 regional divisions and the many committees and specialty groups of the association. Notable accomplishments during presidency:

- Published the co-edited Practicing Geography: Careers for Enhancing Society and the Environment with Pearson as part of the EDGE project (below)
 - Section editor for a 15-volume, 5 million word International Encyclopedia of Geography: People, the Earth, Environment, and Technology with Wiley-Blackwell
 - Served as co-PI of the Enhancing Departments and Graduate Program in geography project funded by the National Science Foundation, <http://www.aag.org/cs/edge>
 - Led the Geography Faculty Development Project, 2002-present. This has included organizing and leading seventeen 1-week summer workshops and dozens of follow up paper, panel and workshop sessions at national and regional geography meetings.
 - Organized and chaired presidential plenary session on "The "Changing Worlds of Higher Education: Opportunities and Challenges" for the 2011 Annual Meeting in Seattle
 - Organized and led the annual Department Leadership workshop, 2010-present. Themes have included: 1) Beyond the ivory tower: Strategies for preparing students for careers in business, government, and non-profit organizations; 2) Supporting early career faculty: Strategies for improving practice in grad school and beyond; and 3) Promoting diversity.
 - Initiated new, annual half-day Chairs' Symposium during annual meeting, 2011-present. Topics have included: 1) Making the case for geography; and 2) Strategic plans and self-study reports.
 - Senior advisor in projects focusing on diversity issues including: 1) the Addressing Locally-tailored Information Infrastructure & Geoscience Needs for Enhancing Diversity (ALIGNED) project, 2010-present; and Catalyzing Research on Geographies of Broadening Participation, 2012-present.
- b) National Councilor (2002-2005), member of the governing board of the AAG.
- c) Member and Chair, AAG Honors Committee, 2007-2008, 2014-15
- d) Member, Editorial Board, The Professional Geographer, 1997-2000. One of the two flagship journals of the AAG.
- e) Chair, Commission on College Geography (1999-2002). The AAG's main committee on undergraduate education.

3) National Council for Geographic Education, Washington, DC

- a) President (2006), Past President (2007)

Responsibilities included oversight of a $500,000 annual budget; a $1 million endowment; a 3-person staff; and a membership of 2,500 K-16 educators. The association publishes two of the major educational journals in geography and convenes the annual Conference on Geographic Education. Notable accomplishments during presidency:

- Acquired a new journal, The Geography Teacher
 - Negotiated a 5-year contract with Taylor and Francis to publish The Geography Teacher and The Journal of Geography
 - Negotiated contract for move of organization from its former administrative home to Washington, DC, in shared quarters with the Association of American Geographers.
- b) Vice President for Research and External Relations, National Council for Geographic Education, 2003-2005.
 - c) Editor, Pathways in Geography Monograph Series, 2000-2004. Acquired, edited and published 8 monographs on topics in geography education.
 - d) Member, George K. Miller Honors Committee, 2007-2009.
 - e) Member, Editorial Board, Journal of Geography, 2000-present.
 - f) Member, Executive Planning Board, the main governing council, 2000-2002.

4) University of Colorado at Boulder, 2000-present

- b) Chair (2002-2005), Associate Chair for Graduate Studies (2001-2002).

Responsibilities included oversight of a $3.1 million annual budget; a 24-person faculty and 4-person staff. The department has approximately 250 majors and about 100 in-residence graduate students. It is one of the major graduate programs in the U.S. and was rated as tied for 2nd place in the recent NRC assessment of doctoral programs. Notable accomplishments during term as chair:

- Balanced budget after 6 years of deficit spending.
 - Developed mentoring guidelines for all assistant and associate professors.
 - Reviewed and revised merit review procedures.
 - Established a new graduate fellowship.
 - Organized first-ever alumni reunion as kick-off a fund raising campaign
- c) Member, Executive Advisory Committee. 2010-2013. Major advisory board to the Dean of Graduate Studies and Vice-Chancellor for Research on research policy and appointments.
 - d) Member, Advisory Board, Faculty Teaching Excellence Program, University of Colorado at Boulder, 2000-2005. Led workshops for faculty.

5) University of Texas at Austin, 1983-1999.

- a) Founder and Director, Environmental Information Systems Laboratory, Department of Geography, 1985-2000. Created the first geographic information system (GIS) laboratory at the University of Texas with grants from NSF, IBM, Intel, and other corporations and developed the first undergraduate and graduate curricula in GIS at the University of Texas
- b) Chair, Faculty Computer Committee, 1995-97. Member, 1986-97. This committee was the major campus-wide advisory board to the provost on investment in computer and information technology from laptops to supercomputers.
- c) Member, Liberal Arts Faculty Computer Committee, College of Liberal Arts, University of Texas at Austin, 1987-1998. This committee was the major advisory board to the dean on investment in computer and information technology.
- d) Member, Information Technology Self-Study Committee, University of Texas Reaccreditation Committee, Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, 1996-98.
- e) Member, Liberal Arts Faculty Council, College of Liberal Arts, 1988-1991.

6) Other Professional and Administrative Service

- a) North American Editor, Journal of Geography in Higher Education, 1998-2003. This is the major international journal on undergraduate and graduate geography education.
- b) Director, Board of Directors, Colorado Geography Education Foundation, 2006-present. Oversees $1 million endowment of the Texas Alliance for Geographic Education, an organization supporting K-12 geography education.
- c) External Evaluator, National Science Foundation, Division of Undergraduate Education, 1996-1998 for science, mathematics, and digital library projects at Dartmouth College; Minnesota State University, Mankato; and the University of California, Santa Barbara.
- d) External Evaluator of geography and geoscience programs at University of Cincinnati; University of New Mexico; San Diego State University; Miami University of Ohio; University of Massachusetts at Amherst; Texas A&M University; Brigham Young University; and the University of Montana.
- e) Member, Geography Education National Implementation Project (GENIP), 1999-2005. Major inter-association coordinating committee for geographic education.
- f) Member, American Academy of Sciences, National Research Council, Project: Support For Thinking Spatially: The Incorporation of Geographic Information Science Across the K-12 Curriculum, 2000-2003.
- g) Member, Review Panel, National Science Foundation, Division of Undergraduate Education and Geography and Spatial Science Program, 1993, 1994, 1996, 1998, 2002, 2006, 2010, 2012.
