Knowledge Mobilization

Media/General Public

Press conferences and media interviews for launch of DV@Work Survey (Dec 2013), SSHRC-funded Network (Sept 2014), and survey results report (Nov 2014). Various print, web and broadcast venues.

Press conference and media interviews for Ontario Shelter Research Project, August 2012: CTV News (London); CBC Radio; London Free Press; Metro; London Community News.

Media interviews for the IPV Screening Trial paper published in JAMA, August 2009: ANews (London); London Free Press; Rogers Cable News (London); Journal Watch Clinical Conversations podcast (with H. MacMillan): <http://podcasts.jwatch.org/?p=573>

Media interviews for December 6 Day of Remembrance on Violence Against Women (as part of CIHR Expert Alert), December 2007: Ottawa Sun; 98.3 FLY FM Kingston; CHNL Radio Kamloops; LondonTopic.ca.

Practice-oriented

Article and interview in October 2, 2007 issue of The Medical Post “Clear risk factors for abuse identified” (by Celia Milne) featuring results of the VAW risk indicator study published in Open Medicine.

Media interviews for the IPV Risk Indicators paper published in Open Medicine for Hamilton radio stations CKOC and CHML (September 2007). Research featured on the McMaster University Faculty of Health Sciences Site (http://fhs.mcmaster.ca/main/news/news\_2007/partner\_violence.html).

McMaster University Violence Against Women Research Program Knowledge Translation Project (N. Wathen, PI, Funders – Canadian Institutes of Health Research (CIHR), and Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council (SSHRC)). A series of activities to engage clinical, policy, research and public/advocacy stakeholders in becoming aware of and helping to shape how research results are communicated to these audiences. Major activities to date include:

- Key Stakeholder Workshops – 3 workshops held in Toronto, Ottawa and London in October 2006 with 80+ stakeholders from across Ontario.
- Follow-up interviews with a stratified random sample of workshop attendees in January & February 2007.
- Development and launch (March 2007) of the Violence Against Women (VAW) Online Community of Interest (www.VAWCommunity.ca) a wiki-based site to foster discussion regarding the VAW Research Program results, and related issues.
- December 2008 policy working group to identify key messages with representatives of several Ontario Ministries with VAW portfolios.
- January 2009 – Inter-ministerial Briefing (Ontario) and Family Violence Knowledge Exchange Forum with 100+ key stakeholders from across Canada.
- All activities include multiple data collection techniques to assess uptake of research findings, effectiveness of knowledge exchange strategies and follow-up to assess impact of knowledge on decision-making in the different sectors (clinical, policy, etc.)

Journal of the American Medical Association “Author in the Room” – North American Broadcast discussion/call-in on the VAW Screening Trial published in JAMA in August 2006 (with Harriet MacMillan), September 20, 2006:
