• Established in 2021, the Business and Society Institute (GBSI) is an academic research center that addresses complex challenges facing people and the planet through academic discovery and purposeful action. In addition to interdisciplinary research and popular elective courses, its key programs include Start:ME (a 14-week small business accelerator in three Atlanta neighborhoods), the Specialty Coffee Transaction Guide (a benchmarking tool for specialty coffee producers), and the Social Enterprise Fellows (a cohort-based experience for BBA and MBA students). The Institute also convenes regular events on issues related to impact investing, benefit corporations, and the role of business in addressing climate change, inequity, and democracy. GBSI was originally known as Social Enterprise @ Goizueta.

Assistant Professor, Organization & Management, Goizueta Business School, Emory University, 2012-2019
Assistant Professor, Sociology (by courtesy), Emory University, 2012-2019

EDUCATION

Ph.D. Sociology, University of Minnesota, 2011
